

The University of Sydney

University of Sydney (Delegations of Authority - Consultants) Rule 2006

Approved by: Senate on 1 May 2006

Date of effect: 2 May 2006

Part 1: Preliminary

1.1 Citation

This Rule is made by the Senate of the University, pursuant to section 37(1) of the University of Sydney Act 1989 and section 5(1) of the University of Sydney By-law 1999 (as amended).

1.2 Commencement

This Rule will commence on 2 May 2006.

1.3 Purpose

The purpose of this Rule is to provide for the appointment of Consultants to perform Delegated Functions in the course of providing services to the University.

1.4 Definitions

In this Rule:

Consultant means a person who has been engaged to provide services to the University pursuant to a consultancy agreement or other contract for services where the services provided include Delegated Functions.

Delegated Functions means functions which, if performed by University employees, would be delegated functions from Senate exercisable pursuant to the Delegations of Authority – Administrative Functions as amended by the Senate on 1 May 2006.

Part 2: Appointment of Consultants

2.1 For the purpose of section 17(c) of the University of Sydney Act 1989, the Senate may delegate to a Consultant nominated by the Vice-Chancellor or a Deputy Vice-Chancellor Delegated Functions which that Consultant requires to perform the duties of a position that they have been nominated to perform.

2.2 The Senate delegates to each Consultant nominated by the Vice Chancellor or a Deputy Vice-Chancellor the functions which that Consultant requires to perform the Delegated Functions of the position that they have been nominated to perform.
