

The University of Sydney

MASTER OF HUMAN RIGHTS & DEMOCRATISATION (ASIA PACIFIC) SUPPLEMENTARY APPLICATION FORM

All applicants for the Master of Human Rights and Democratisation must complete and submit this supplementary application form with their application for admission to the program.

Financial Assistance

- The University of Sydney will provide up to 30 scholarships for citizens of developing countries in the Asia Pacific region to join the Master of Human Rights and Democratisation (Asia Pacific). The scholarship will cover the international student fees payable, accommodation, living expenses during the semesters and one return airfare (economy). Students who wish to apply for financial assistance must state their request by ticking the proper box below and are asked to answer the questions in the following section.

Please choose the applicable option:

- I request financial support as a precondition for participation in the MHRD (Asia Pacific). I have provided a statement of motivation under question 5 of this supplementary application form.
- I do not request financial support.

Work, Practical Experience and Publications

- Please list any certifiable human rights or related work experience, whether paid or voluntary. List most recent experiences first:

Position	Institution	City, Country	From	To

- Did you conduct any research associated with your studies or work? If so, into what? Please describe.

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

