

University of Sydney Library

Off-campus access for LPAB students to legal online resources

Last Updated: February 15, 2007.

Accessing LPAB Supplementary Materials – 2 ways:

1. To see a list of books and scanned material available from Library Reserve/e-reserve:

1. Go to the Library Catalogue (<http://opac.library.usyd.edu.au/>)
2. Click on the red 'Reserve' link at the top
3. Select the 'Unit of Study' option.
4. Type in 'LPAB' then the subject name (eg 'LPAB Criminal Law and Procedure')
5. When opening or downloading ereserve items off campus you will be prompted to type in either your:
 - Unikey login and password
 - Library name and barcode number (if you don't already have a Unikey)

* To get a Unikey if you don't have one: <https://www.auth.usyd.edu.au/extro/LEC/lecreg.cgi>

2. To see a full list of resources, including links to legislation and cases from other websites:

1. Login to Webcampus via the LEC website (<http://www.usyd.edu.au/lec/>)
2. Click on the link to supplementary materials for the subject you require
3. Follow the links to access the item you need. See step 5 above if accessing from off-campus.
- Alternative path to the 2nd option: <http://www.library.usyd.edu.au/libraries/law/lpab.html#LibResources>

Accessing free legal web sites from the Law Web Resources page

<http://www.library.usyd.edu.au/libraries/law/webresources.html>

Many free legal web sites (such as AustLII) have been organised for your convenience and linked to the Law Web Resources page. Web sites have been arranged by topic (eg criminology, environmental law, etc), by type (eg cases, legislation, etc) and by area of specialisation (eg legal abbreviations, legal citation guides, etc).

Accessing databases from the Law Databases page

<http://www.library.usyd.edu.au/libraries/law/databases.html>

When opening law databases from off-campus you will be prompted to type in either your:

- Unikey login and password
- Library name and barcode number (if you don't already have a Unikey)

* To get a Unikey if you don't have one: <https://www.auth.usyd.edu.au/extro/LEC/lecreg.cgi>

Password access only

Some of the databases will only be available via a password.

- To get the password list: follow this link and log in with your Unikey to get the password: <http://www.library.usyd.edu.au/erdb/> or follow the 'Get Password' link next to the database.
- Passwords to any other databases not listed here are available on request (email library@law.usyd.edu.au for the attention of the Law Extension Librarian)

*More information on off-campus access: <http://www.library.usyd.edu.au/databases/wam.html>