Scandal in the Quadrangle: The Nicholson Museum and Great Hall

(Walking tour)

Craig Barker and Julia Horne

A chance to explore the early history of the University of Sydney and hear the gossip and rumour that surround the beginnings of the Nicholson Museum and Great Hall. Meet Sir Charles Nicholson, founder of the Nicholson museum and the University's first Vice Chancellor (from 1851 to 1854). A rare tour of the University of Sydney's Great Hall, which celebrates its sesquicentenary this year.
