

SYDNEY
UNIVERSITY
MUSEUMS

Nicholson Museum Invitation

SWORD AND SANDAL MOVIES THREE EVENINGS OF FILM

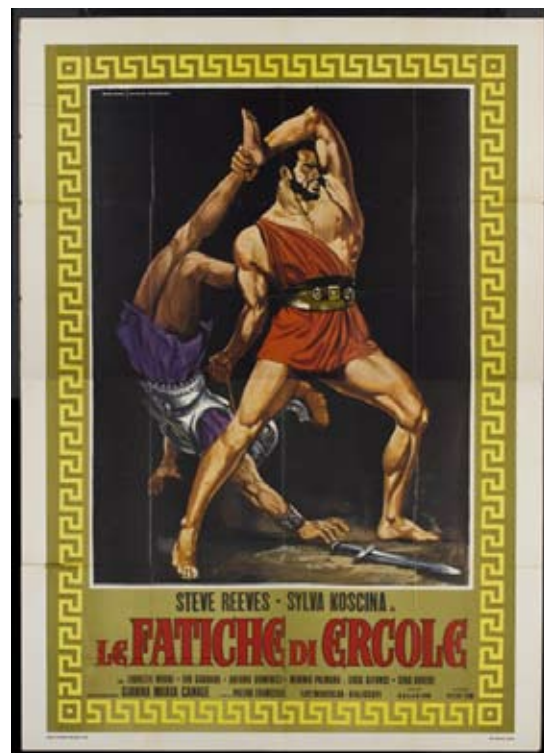

Film makers have long been fascinated with telling stories from ancient history; this is your chance to learn more.

Tuesday 11 August, 6.30pm The Last Days of Pompeii

Tuesday 18 August, 6.30pm Gladiators and Fights

Tuesday 25 August, 6.30pm Hercules the Hero

Lively and opinionated, Estelle and Craig will discuss trivia about the films, speak about historical inaccuracies and generally have a good time talking about some of their favourite films: from Oscar winners to B-grade films they first saw at drive-in cinemas.

Join archaeologists Dr Estelle Lazer and Dr Craig Barker as they take you through the ancient history of Hollywood in a series of three talks over three weeks.

Each evening will feature a talk on a particular aspect of the Classical world, and a discussion on how film makers have approached it over time; with screenings of clips and segments. See how the Hollywood version of history varies from reality, and see where they got it right!

Cost: $20 per evening (or $50 for all three evenings)

Bookings essential: 9351 2812

The University of Sydney