P0217	NEWCOMB HODGE ESSAY PRIZE IN EDUCATION II OR III	1

Established in 1951 by a donation from the Newcombe Hodge Fellowship, with a further endowment for the prize in 1957. The Newcombe Hodge Fellowship was founded to keep in memory the lives and educational principles of Harriet C. Newcombe and Margaret Hodge, who were associated with educational developments at the turn of the century. Awarded annually for an outstanding essay in a unit of study in Education II or Education III, the prize is not restricted to Education.

P0494	HEADFORT SCHOOL PRIZE FOR EDUCATION III	1
-------	--	---

Established in 1959 by a donation of 61 pounds, with accrued interest from a donation made in 1928 by former students of the Headfort School, a preparatory school for boys which operated at Killara from 1917 until 1928. The residual of the Harry Albert Edwards bequest was added to the funds in 2006. Awarded annually on the recommendation of the Dean of the Faculty of Education and Social Work to the student who demonstrates the greatest proficiency in the course Education 3, provided that the students work is of sufficient merit. The funds may also be used to support Visiting Scholars. Value $350.00 or such sum as determined by the Faculty.

The prize was created in 1991 by the amalgamation of four existing awards: 1. The Laura Bogue Luffman Memorial Prize established in 1955 as a memorial to Mrs Luffman who was a campaigner for the rights of women. 2. The Frances Mary Gillespie Prize established in 1964 in celebration of the work of the Gillespie family in supporting the beginnings of medical social work in NSW. 3. The Dorothy Poate Memorial Lecture established in 1941 with funds from the Board of Social Study and Training in honour of Dorothy Poate who received the Boards certificate in 1932. 4. The Board of Social Study and Training Scholarship established in 1941 with the remaining funds of the Board which preceded the University of Sydney in training social workers from 1929 to 1940. The prize is awarded annually on the recommendation of the Head of the Department of Social Work and Social Policy to the student with the highest aggregate marks in the Third Year of the Bachelor of Social Work degree. The fund was further supplemented in 2006 by donations in memory of Eva Byrne, a dedicated social worker, whose passionate work contributed significantly to Commonwealth and NSW State Government policies on immigration, the protection of children, and the rights of indigenous Australians.
